

Making Markets Matter at Altrincham Market

A roadshow with cooking demonstrations, entertainment, games and much more.

Quotes from the Making Markets Matter Event:

Jenny age 7 from sale

"I've had a great day at the market the traders have really smiley faces and I've got a new bag and some sweeties"

Alan from Altrincham

"It's great to see the market so busy its nice to see a whole community come together for the event like this there's a real buzz around the market and the live music adds an air of celebration to the market"

Barbara from Timperley

"We come to Altrincham market every week but there are allot of new faces here today and there seem to be allot more stalls which is great to see our local market thriving"

Emma from Urmston

"I have picked up some great bargains today and we haven't been to Altrincham Market in years but its good to see it so busy we will definitely come back soon"

Anne from Lymm

"I came down today to see the event and support the market as I have been coming here since I was a child but I can't remember there being such a family friendly day"

