Working as a Reading Hack Volunteer will involve some of the following duties:

- Sorting the Big Friendly Read materials and putting up displays
- Signing children up to the challenge
- Helping children to find and choose books
- Listening to them talking about their books
- Helping children to use the Summer Reading Challenge website
- Using activity sheets and other ideas to help children share their reading choices with their peers
- Collecting data for evaluation

This summer we would like our volunteers to help with children’s craft and activity sessions as well as helping to run the Big Friendly Read Summer Reading Challenge. Reading Hack Volunteers are needed for the following times during the school summer holidays. Please tick which branch you would prefer:

- Altrincham  Thursday  2 – 4 p.m.
- Timperley  Tuesday  10 to 12 noon
- Stretford  Thursday  2 – 4 p.m.
- Urmston  Thursday  2 – 4 p.m.

Would you be able to volunteer for 2 hours at one of our Medal presentation Parties on Saturday September 10\textsuperscript{th} or Saturday September 17\textsuperscript{th}?  Yes/No

Please give the details of someone who could provide a reference for you

Do you have any related experience or any other comments?

Please return this form to your local library or by post to Library Volunteering, Sale Waterside, Sale, Manchester M33 7ZF or email to libraries@trafford.gov.uk by Friday June 10\textsuperscript{th} 2016.
